Your Dress, Your Identity

- Would you give your money to a banker who was dressed like this?
- If you visited the hospital, would you allow a shabbily dressed surgeon to operate on you?

04

Eye of the Vulgar

Vulgar

not having or showing good manners, good taste, or politeness

Should you expose your body to the eyes of the vulgar?

05 Choosing a Dress

Dress should be clean

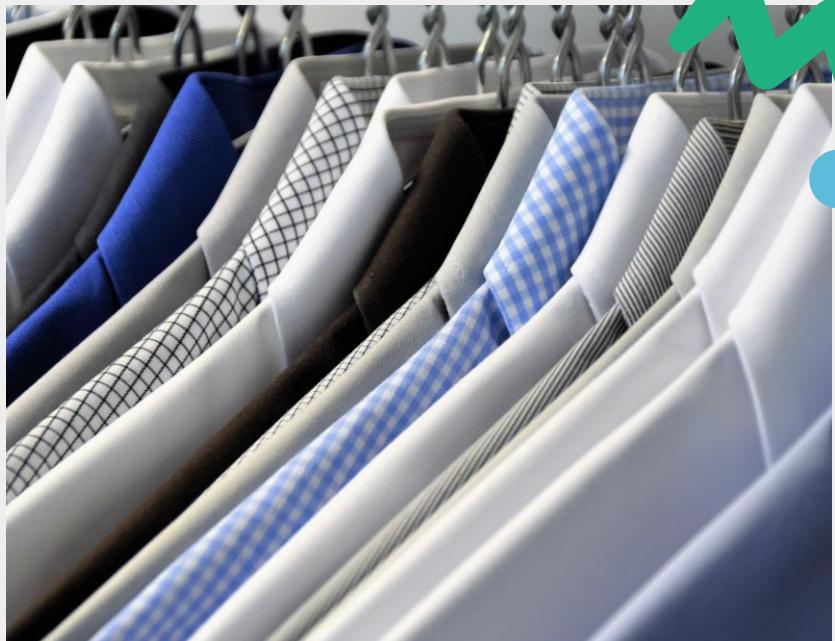

A clean dress can be worn up to a maximum of 3 days

Dress should not be wrinkled

Iron before wearing it

Dress should smell good

Smell it yourself, especially the armpit areas

Dress should have no holes

Wearing a dress with holes makes you lose respect for yourself

Dress should be opaque

You can hold it against the light to check that it is not see-through

Black absorbs heat

You may not want to wear a black dress on a hot sunny afternoon

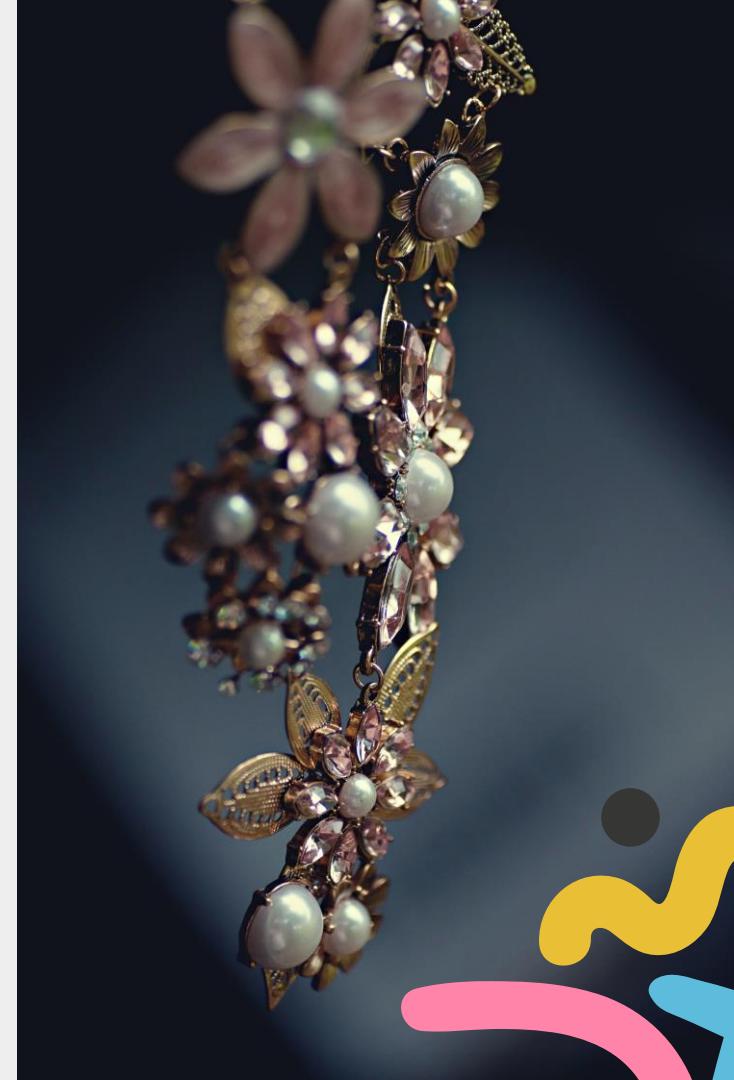

Read the Writings

It matters what is written on your dress

10 Dressing for Sleep

Dressing for Sleep

Pyjamas, Nightgown, Sleepshirt, etc.

Dressing for Sleep

- Should be comfortable and loose, easy for you to get out of bed and use the washroom
- No need for underwear
- You do not go outside the house with it

11

Dressing for Seasons

Different Seasons

- Dry / Harmattan
- Wet / Rainy

Dry / Harmattan

- Apply lip gloss or shea butter on your lips to avoid lips from cracking
- Shea butter can also protect your body from the weather when worn as a pomade
- Vaseline works fine when you do not have shea

Wet / Rainy

- You may want to wear an extra piece of clothing to keep you warm
- Sweatshirts, thick socks, etc.

12

Body Odour

Odour

a particular smell, especially an unpleasant one

Body Odour

- When you have a bad smell from your armpit slice some lime and apply it there
- Wait for at least 10 minutes and wash it off when bathing
- You can also mix lime with ash for the same purpose

Deodorants

- Applying deodorants when you have body odour will only make it worse
- Use lime and ash to get rid of the odour first, then you can apply the deodorant

Final Notes

A photograph of a woman's profile from the side. She is wearing a vibrant, patterned headwrap with orange, green, white, and black geometric designs. A large, ornate silver earring hangs from her ear. Around her neck is a dark, multi-layered necklace with several large, circular, metallic pendants. The background is plain and light-colored.

God is Perfect

- You cannot improve on what God has created
- Resist the temptation to do so as it will only lead to unintended consequences
- This means that you can improve upon your dressing, but not your body

In what ways do people attempt to improve their bodies?

A black and white portrait of a young woman with a warm smile, wearing a patterned top. The background is dark with abstract, colorful shapes in yellow, pink, teal, and grey.

Fashion

- There is no such thing as fashion
- God does not do trends, movements, etc.
- Always ask yourself why you are wearing this, dressed like this, and if it will please the one who gave you life

The more, the better

- When it comes to dressing, the more you hide, the better
- When people meet you they should not see all of you

Lastly...

- Resist the temptation to pass comments about other people's body parts no matter how harmless those comments may seem
- They may laugh about it in public but not so in private

Thanks!
