

Know Yourself II

Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

To know God, you
must first know
yourself

Know Yourself

- Who are you?
- Where do you come from?
- What are you doing here?
- Where are you going?
- How do you get there?

1

Know Yourself

Who are you?

You are a son of God, whether you are male or female

When you are a baby, you do not know the difference between what is right and what is wrong

A close-up photograph of a person's hand reaching out towards a lit cigarette held by another hand. The cigarette is burning at the top, with smoke rising. The background is dark. The image is framed by a decorative border of overlapping circles in various shades of gray.

When you grow to a stage where you learn to choose right from wrong, God's spirit comes to live in you

God's spirit starts teaching you his ways so that you can also become perfect

A photograph of a woman and a young child sitting on a dark wooden floor against a rustic wooden wall. The woman, on the left, has short brown hair and is wearing a light grey V-neck sweater over a white shirt, paired with dark jeans and light-colored sneakers. She is looking down at a colorful map spread out on the floor. The child, on the right, has blonde hair and is wearing a dark blue long-sleeved shirt and jeans. They are also looking at the map. Large, semi-transparent circular shapes are overlaid on the image, particularly on the left side.

Those who obey his voice,
become perfect — like Christ

Know Yourself

Where do you come from?

Before I shaped you in the womb, I knew all about you.
Before you saw the light of day,
I had holy plans for you: A prophet to the nations – that's what I had in mind for you.

- You come from the Father

Before a child enters her mother's womb
to be born...

They are first given a cloth to wear

A photograph showing the back of two children. On the left, a girl with long brown hair is wearing a blue dress. On the right, a younger child with blonde hair is wearing a red dress. They are holding hands, with their arms raised towards the top of the frame. The background is dark.

This cloth later grows into a body that they take care of by bathing, combing, eating, etc.

But it is for the child to find ways to feed their spirit and not their body alone; that is the purpose of life

Know Yourself

What are you doing here?

You are here to feed your spirit. You do so by...

Choosing God in your Thoughts...

Choosing God in your Words...

And choosing God in your Actions

Know Yourself

Where are you going?

A photograph of a dark wooden boat with two oars resting on its deck, positioned in the lower half of the frame. The boat is on a body of water with visible ripples. In the background, a bright sun is partially obscured by clouds, with rays of light extending towards the horizon. The overall atmosphere is serene and contemplative.

You are going back to the Father

You will be given a new body

5

Know Yourself

How do you get there?

Choosing God's way of doing things, makes your spirit grow

Sin makes your spirit die

A photograph of two hands reaching up from the bottom of the frame to form a heart shape. The hands are positioned in front of a bright blue sky filled with scattered white and grey clouds. The light from behind the hands creates a glowing effect at the center of the heart. The hands appear to be of a light-skinned person.

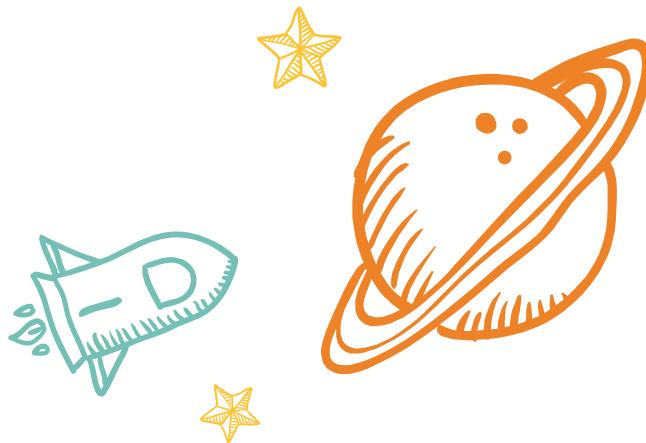

Eternal life is a way of life that pleases God

When your life pleases God, God is able to give you a new cloth (body) in Heaven so that you can continue existing

Your new cloth (body) is woven in this life by the choices you make

Weave

to make something (such as cloth) by crossing threads or other long pieces of material over and under each other.

The beauty of your new cloth (heavenly body) will depend on how well you take care of your present cloth (earthly body)

A photograph of a young woman with long dark hair, wearing a white traditional dress with intricate gold embroidery on the collar and cuffs. She is holding a branch with small pink flowers, looking thoughtfully upwards and to the side. The background is a soft-focus green foliage.

When your parents give you a new cloth and you do not take good care of it, they are less likely to give you a nicer cloth
again — likewise your Heavenly Father

The Father awaits
you in Paradise...

Thanks!
